DISTRICT SCHOOL BOARD

KPR Virtual Elementary School

Parent Handbook

Welcome to KPR Virtual Elementary School!

The Kawartha Pine Ridge District School Board is committed to ensuring that students across its jurisdiction receive a consistent approach to remote learning in times of extended interruption to conventional in-person learning, such as when public health emergencies, pandemics, natural disasters, or other unplanned events force the closure of classrooms or schools.

We believe students should have access to a school community, a support network, and authentic educational experiences in order to continue to progress in their learning.

We are dedicated to student learning by creating a culture with high expectations where students grow academically, and emotionally. We promote the development of 21st Century learning skills in our students by nurturing deep learning competencies: Creativity, Collaboration, Citizenship, Critical Thinking, Character, and Communication.

We look forward to working with you to provide the best education for your child.

Ensuring a common understanding of language-related to Remote Learning

Remote learning: Learning that occurs when classes are taught at a distance and when students and educators are not in a conventional classroom setting. Remote learning takes place in times of extended interruption to in-person learning – for example, as a result of a pandemic or natural disaster. Classes can be synchronous or asynchronous and can be taught online through a Learning Management System (LMS) or by using videoconferencing tools. In some cases, they may be delivered through emails, print materials, broadcast media, or telephone calls.

Synchronous learning: Learning that happens in real-time. Synchronous learning involves using text, video, or voice communication in a way that enables educators and other members of the school- or board-based team to instruct and connect with students in real-time. Synchronous learning supports the well-being and academic achievement of all students, including students with special education needs, by providing educators and students with an interactive and engaging way to learn. It helps educators provide immediate feedback to students and enables students to interact with one another.

Asynchronous learning: Learning that is not delivered in real-time. Asynchronous learning may involve students watching pre-recorded video lessons, completing assigned tasks, or contributing to online discussion boards.

Remote Learning Requirements for School Boards

During periods of remote learning, we will provide opportunities for students to engage in synchronous learning and must adhere to the following requirements:

1. Minimum Requirements for Engaging Students during Remote Learning

- Students and parents/guardians will be provided with a daily schedule or timetable that includes 300 minutes of learning opportunities, with a combination of synchronous and asynchronous learning activities.
- Programming will be based on the full Ontario curriculum and include opportunities for guided instruction, large- and small-group learning, synchronous check-ins, and asynchronous independent work.
- Educators will be available to students during the educators' assigned teaching timetables, as they would be if they were face-to-face in a classroom setting.

2. Minimum Requirements for Synchronous Learning

- It is expected that synchronous learning will be provided for large and small groups of students each day, in a manner similar to in-person classroom teaching. Synchronous learning time may include students working independently and in small groups while engaged in a virtual classroom with the teacher overseeing their learning and available for questions.
- Additional group meetings may take place between educators and students as needed to address specific learning needs. This will ensure that students are engaged in their learning with appropriate levels of support.

3. Process for Exemption from Synchronous Learning

- Students exempted from synchronous learning will remain as part of the class and will be provided with similar work that is assigned through synchronous learning on a 300 minute/daily schedule.
- The exemption form is located on the board and VES website.

4. Protocols for Delivering Remote Learning

A. Communication Processes with VES Staff

Ongoing communication between parents/guardians and educators is very important.

Educators will:

- Provide parents/students with a daily schedule at the beginning of each week based on a five-day cycle.

The following tips for parents will strengthen our communications:

- Address questions and/or concerns with the educator directly by using their KPR email address.
- To protect your child's privacy, please do not post questions or comments in a space that all students and parents can see (e.g. Edsby).
- Where necessary educators may also be available for phone calls.
- In many cases, your child will have more than one teacher. Most questions can likely be answered by the homeroom teacher. If a task was assigned by a different teacher, please direct your question to that individual for a speedier response.

B. Differentiated Assessment and Instruction

Educators will:

- Incorporate assessment for, as, and of learning (including diagnostic, formative, and summative assessment), into planning and instruction.
- Collect assessment and evaluation on an ongoing basis through smaller assignments in such a way that it could be easily shared should the child move back to face-to-face instruction.
- Provide daily opportunities for each student to receive meaningful feedback.
- Provide differentiated support to all students.

C. Supporting Students with Special Education Needs

Educators will:

- Continue to provide accommodations, modified expectations, and alternative programming to students with special education needs, as detailed in their IEPs. If it is not possible to meet a student's needs through synchronous learning, educators and families will work together to find solutions. This will be discussed with administrators and the SERT.

5. Standardized Suite of Synchronous Learning Platforms

In VES, EDSBY, and Google Classroom are the approved synchronous learning platforms to ensure that students have a consistent learning experience, and educators will be provided with training on these platforms. The platforms will allow real-time communication between educators, students, and parents during remote learning.

These features will be introduced to students and reviewed as needed by the educators.

6. KPR Guidelines for Working Safely with Technology

Ensuring the protection of privacy and the cybersecurity of educators, students, and parents are paramount to supporting a safe and inclusive learning environment for remote learning.

Educators will:

- Ensure student safety and security during remote learning.
 - Create norms with the class at the beginning of the year during the staggered entry week.

KPR Remote Learning Plan

The guidelines provided below will help students think about what they can do to be successful in a distance learning environment.

Student Roles & Responsibilities

- Try to follow a regular routine for your schoolwork each day. This includes taking breaks, eating healthy and keeping normal bedtime routines.
- Check online platforms (Edsby, Google Classroom, email, etc.) on a regular basis for announcements and feedback from your teachers.
- Complete assignments with integrity and academic honesty, doing your best work.
- Do your best to meet timelines, commitments, and due dates.
- Communicate proactively with your teachers if you cannot meet deadlines or require additional support.
- Collaborate and support your classmates in their learning.
- Pay attention to yourself. Movement and exercise are important for your health, well-being and learning. If you are feeling stressed or worried, talk to your family or teachers. Mental health resources are available on the school board website at Resources to Support Mental Health.

At the beginning of the year teachers will set digital citizenship norms and responsibilities in collaboration with their students. These will be shared with families and we ask that you discuss them with your child.

KPR Remote Learning - Tips for Parents

Here are 10 suggestions to help parents support their children's success while learning at home.

Be Present. You know your child best. Some children will require significant support to manage the technology. In the regular classroom some children require reminders to stay focused on their work. Refocusing the child from a distance might not be as effective and having an adult nearby to support would be helpful. Your child will require assistance with focus and attention. A teacher who would like to work one-on-one with a child will reach out to the parent so that they can be present during this break testing (e.g. testing).

Establish routines. Set regular hours for schoolwork that reflect the needs of family members. A regular routine will support everyone – encourage movement, take breaks and keep normal bedtime routines.

Identify a work space. Establish a space where children will learn most of the time - a quiet space where parents can supervise and support their children's learning.

Communicate with Educators. Educators will communicate regularly through email, or phone for those who do not have access to the Internet. The frequency of these connections will be based, in part, on your children's needs.

Regular Check-Ins. Check-in regularly with your children to help them understand instructions, organize themselves and set priorities. Great questions include: What are the learning goals or big ideas? What resources do you require? What support do you need?

Help your children own their learning. Group discussions, asking questions, and collaborating on projects are part of a normal school day. Some of these social interactions are recreated online, but your child will also need to complete their work as independently as possible. If your child is struggling, please contact the teacher.

Establish time/space for quiet and reflection. Families with multiple children may have challenges managing their children's learning needs. Siblings may need to work in different rooms to avoid distraction. Consider using headphones if they are available.

Encourage physical activity. Movement and exercise are vitally important for health, well-being and learning. Frequent breaks for movement are encouraged.

Be mindful of your child's stress or worry. Your continued attention to your children's questions and concerns is important. You can provide reassurance by listening and talking with them.

Stay social, but set guidelines. If your child uses social media to connect with peers, encourage responsible use of technology – being respectful and appropriate in communicating with others is very important.

Digital Citizenship

Now, as never before, we have an obligation to teach students their rights and responsibilities as digital citizens. Visit the KPR Digital Citizenship Webpage for information and resources for educators, students and parents.

Student Attendance and Safe Arrival

Students are expected to log on to Edsby or Google Classroom at 8:45 am or a couple of minutes before to ensure connectivity.

Our school participates in the SAFE ARRIVAL PROGRAM. It is the responsibility of parents to use the Safe Arrival program to indicate if a student will be absent or late for the day. Our current program, “SchoolMessenger”, allows parents/guardians to report their child’s absence quickly and conveniently in any of the following ways:

- by calling 1-844-434-8119 toll free
- or go to studentabsence.kprdsb.ca prior to the start time
- by installing and using the SchoolMessenger app for your iOS or Android device

Use any of the above methods to report each day your child is absent. Where a student is absent for an extended period of time, please advise the school of the expected return date. Parents may also report future absences at any time by emailing the teacher.

Students with numerous absences/lates will be referred to the Board’s Attendance Counselor for support. Students who arrive after 9:00 a.m. or 12:30 p.m. will be considered late. If a student is significantly late due to an appointment or family circumstance, please email the teacher explaining the reason for the delay in arrival or you can put it in School Messenger. Students who need to leave early, should let the teacher know via email.

Student attendance will be taken twice daily, first thing in the morning and after Lunch.

School Code of Conduct

Please note: This is a typical School Code of Conduct, based on categories of information provided by the Ministry of Education and applies to our Virtual Elementary School.

Rationale

Everyone has the right to be safe and to feel safe, welcome, and included at school. This School Code of Conduct reflects the guiding principles of the Board's Safe, Caring and Restorative Schools Policy and the Ontario Code of Conduct. It supports a common understanding for safe learning and working environments, where everyone is treated with respect, fairness, and dignity. It also helps to prevent bullying in schools. The School Code of Conduct applies to students while they are attending the virtual school, engaged in a school-related activity, or in other circumstances where the activity affects the school climate.

Responsibilities

- Safety is everyone's responsibility.
- Everyone in our school community is responsible for promoting safe, caring relationships that respect human dignity.
- Everyone is responsible for preventing harm.
- Students, staff, volunteers, parents, and guardians have additional responsibilities unique to their roles.

1. Standards of Behaviour

Respect, Dignity, Civility, Equality and Responsible Participation in School Life

- show respect for themselves, for others and for those in authority
- use personal mobile devices during instructional time only under the following circumstances:
 - for educational purposes, as directed by an educator
 - for health and medical purposes
 - to support special education needs.

Additional Staff Responsibilities

- help students achieve their full potential and develop their self-worth
- assess, evaluate and report student progress
- communicate regularly and meaningfully with students, parents or guardians
- discipline fairly and consistently, taking any mitigating factors into account, as required by school board regulations on

Behaviour/Code of Conduct, and the School Code of Conduct

- be on time and prepared for all classes and school activities
- prepare students for the full responsibilities of membership in their community/society
- safeguard students from persons or conditions that interfere with the learning process
- understand and minimize any biases that may affect student-teacher relationships.

Additional Parent/Guardian Responsibilities

- attend to their child's physical, social, academic and emotional well-being
- show an active interest in their child's school work and actively support student progress
- communicate regularly with the school
- help their child be neat, clean, appropriately dressed and prepared for school

- promptly report to the school their child's absence or late arrival
- become familiar with the Code of Conduct and school rules
- encourage and assist their child in following the rules of behaviour
- assist school staff in dealing with disciplinary issues for their child

2. School Code of Conduct Rules

- Students must be allowed to learn.
- Teachers must be allowed to teach.

The following behaviours are not acceptable for anyone in the school community:

- physical, verbal, electronic, written or other means of sexual or psychological abuse
- (e.g., sarcasm, ridicule, humiliation)
- assault
- bullying
- actions motivated by hate, bias or discrimination (e.g., on grounds of race, ancestry, place of origin, colour, ethnic origin, citizenship, creed, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, gender expression, age, marital status, family status or disability).
- damage to property in the school environment (including school grounds, buses, trips.)

The principal may apply these rules when the pupil's conduct outside school negatively impacts the school.

3. Physical and Emotional (Psychological)

Safety

To protect the physical and psychological safety of everyone at school, we will not tolerate:

Weapons

- possession of any weapon or replica weapon, such as firearms
- use of any object or means to threaten or intimidate another person
- causing injury to any person with an object

Alcohol and Drugs

- possessing, being under the influence of, or providing others with, alcohol or restricted
- drugs

Physical Aggression

- inflicting or encouraging others to inflict bodily harm on another person
- intimidation

Non-physical Aggression

- emotional, sexual, homophobic, racist, sexist, faith-based, ability-based or social status-based actions that hurt an individual or group, whether intentional or not □ threatening physical harm, bullying or harassing others
- using any form of discrimination, stereotype, prejudice, harassment, hate/bias-motivated act.

Further to these standards of behaviour, all school members are expected to seek staff assistance, if necessary, to resolve conflict peacefully.

Bullying

Bullying and harassment in any form are wrong and hurtful. Everyone has a role to play as we work together to prevent, identify and respond to bullying and exclusion. We all are accountable for our actions. Where bullying does occur, we respond fairly and appropriately, to build respectful relationships. Restorative practice is one strategy we use to prevent, and repair the harm caused by, bullying and exclusion. Bullying, by definition: "Bullying is typically a form of repeated, persistent, aggressive behaviour that is directed at an individual/s that is intended to cause (or should be known to cause) fear, distress and/or harm to another person's body, feelings, self-esteem or reputation. Bullying occurs in a context when there is real or perceived power imbalance."

Simply put this means:

- Bullying is a deliberate act
- There is an intent to harm
- It is persistent overtime
- There is an imbalance of power

Cyber-bullying: includes bullying by electronic means, including:

- creating a web page or blog in which the creator assumes the identity of another person
- impersonating another person as the author of content or messages posted on theInternet
- communicating inappropriate material electronically to more than one individual, or posting material on a website that may be accessed by one or more individuals.

Bullying, in any form, has negative effects on:

- a student's ability to learn
- healthy relationships and the school climate
- a school's ability to educate its students

We will not accept bullying on school property, at school-related activities, or in any another circumstances (e.g., online) where bullying has a negative effect on school climate.

6. Strategies to Promote Positive Student Behaviour

Prevention Strategies Schools in the KPR Board promote academic excellence through the character attributes of respect, responsibility, honesty, integrity, empathy, fairness, initiative, perseverance, courage and optimism, to enable all students to reach their full potential. Schools also use restorative practice, an approach that manages conflict by repairing harm and strengthening relationships. It holds the individuals causing harm accountable for their actions, and it allows everyone – the person harmed, the person causing harm and others affected – to express the harm that was caused and any resulting needs. Restorative practice allows reparation (“making it right”), healing and reintegration, while preventing future harm. It may include responses ranging from informal conversations or meetings, to formal restorative conferences.

In addition, the Board’s Code of Conduct sets clear standards of behaviour that are firm and fair. These standards apply to everyone in the school system – students, parents, guardians, volunteers, employees – in circumstances that could affect school climate.

Prevention strategies are designed to:

- establish a positive school climate
- maintain effective online classroom management and discipline
- encourage, reinforce and reward positive behaviour
- promote social skills development
- provide information regarding anger management programs
- use peer counselling and conflict resolution
- use effective, respectful home-school communication

Supportive Intervention Strategies use:

- “teachable moments” (using a current situation or news story to teach students a valuable skill or lesson)
- verbal reminders, redirection and reinforcement
- interviews, discussion and active listening
- offering positive choices to support positive behaviour/citizenship
- problem solving techniques including restorative practices
- contracts for expected behaviour
- appropriate outside agency support
- school/Board/community resources
- understanding of individual and group interactions and power imbalances within society
- learning and information-sharing to better understand people and situations

6. Community Threat Assessment Protocol

The KPR school board also has a Community Threat Assessment Protocol (CTAP) in place with many local agencies and police services. When student behaviours pose a potential threat to safety or risk of serious harm, the CTAP helps principals take immediate steps to protect student well-being and respond to threatening incidents. Please speak with the principal for further information on this protocol.

7. Consequences for Unacceptable Behaviour

Consequences for unacceptable behaviour are appropriate to the individual, circumstances and actions. Schools use progressive discipline, with a range of responses, supports and restorative practices that promote positive behaviour and inclusive school cultures. Consequences are firm, fair, clear and appropriate to the student's age and development. They include learning opportunities, to reinforce positive behaviours and help students make good choices. For students with special education needs, consequences and supports are consistent with the student's Individual Education Plan (IEP). The Board, principals and vice-principals consider all mitigating and other factors, as required by legislation. Progressive discipline and restorative approaches are outlined in detail in the Safe, Caring and Restorative Schools Manual for Administrators.

Consequences may include one or more of the following:

- warnings
- apology
- restitution (e.g., paying for damage, doing community service)
- suspension
- expulsion.

The Principal, or their designate, will consider suspending a student if they believe that the pupil has participated in any of the following infractions:

- Uttering a threat to inflict serious bodily harm on another person.
- Possessing alcohol or illegal drugs.
- Being under the influence of alcohol.
- Swearing at a teacher or at another person in a position of authority.
- Committing an act of vandalism that causes extensive damage to school property at the pupil's school or to property located on the premises of the pupil's school.
- Bullying (see section 3)
- Persistent opposition to authority.
- The willful destruction of school or Board property.
- The use of profane or improper language.
- Conduct injurious to the moral tone of the school or to the physical or emotional well-being of self or others in the school.

As required by law, a student shall be suspended and considered for expulsion on the following grounds:

- Possessing a weapon, including possessing a firearm.
- Using a weapon to cause or to threaten bodily harm to another person.
- Committing physical assault on another person that causes bodily harm requiring treatment by a medical practitioner.
- Committing sexual assault.
- Trafficking in weapons or in illegal drugs.
- Committing robbery.

- Giving alcohol to a minor.
- Bullying, if:
 - the pupil has previously been suspended for engaging in bullying, and
 - the pupil's continued presence in the school creates an unacceptable risk to the safety of another person.

Any incident including bullying, that is motivated by bias, prejudice or hate based on race, national or ethnic origin, language, colour, religion, sex, age, mental or physical disability, sexual orientation, gender identity, gender expression, or any similar factor (e.g. socio-economic status, appearance).

In accordance with provincial directives, a student may be suspended, and expulsion may be considered, if:

- the pupil commits an infraction in the school community, which has an adverse effect on the school
 - the pupil's pattern of behaviour is so "refractory" (unmanageable) that the pupil's presence is harmful to the learning environment
 - the pupil has taken part in activities that:
 - cause the pupil's presence to be harmful to the physical or emotional well-being of others in the school
 - cause extensive damage to property at the school or to property located
